Drum Set Lessons

Lesson Guidelines

Lesson Times: Each lesson is either 60 minutes or 30 minutes in duration depending on what has been previously discussed. Please arrive early, as lessons will begin on time. Generally, if the student arrives 15 minutes early, he or she will have an opportunity to warm up prior to their lesson.

Please make certain that you are prepared for each lesson. "Homework" will be given each lesson for the following lesson. It is the student's responsibility to take ample time through out the week to practice on the material given in the previous lesson.

Lesson fees: Collection of fees will be accepted prior to the first lesson of the cycle. Monthly lesson cycles consist of 4 lessons. Semester lesson cycles consist of 15 lessons. Payments may be made by cash, check, or PayPal. If you wish to pay via PayPal, this can be done through my website: www.mattmurphy.info/products.html.

Each lesson will consist of work on some or all of the following: Rudiments, Method Material (books), Reading drum notation, Ear Training (learning songs), Coordinated independence and Musical Concepts.

Cancellation Policy: If for ANY REASON you should miss a lesson, please notify me at least 24 hours in advance to receive credit for the missed lesson. Only for serious family emergencies will the lesson be credited if the teacher is called on the day of the lesson. Lessons missed will be made up within the month that they are missed. Failure to do so will forfeit the missed lesson(s).

Practice.... Anywhere from 15 minutes to an hour daily should be spent on review of material learned in the previous lesson(s). Take time to warm-up and work on the material that is challenging.
